Pony rides at parties are limited to children age 7 and under. There is no lower age limit, However, children who are not physically able to ride without assistance as determined by a staff member must have a parent or guardian to assist during the ride.

In the best interest of all involved we ask that ponies be located at the furthest proximity from loud party activities such as jumpies, balloon pops, etc.

Staff members will be present to lead ponies and clean up after the event.
